Hotel Concierges Go Above and Beyond

Hotel concierges have to deal with some pretty unusual situations sometimes. Here are some of their most outlandish stories, from the Huffington Post website:

• One guest in a London hotel requested wild goat's milk for his bath. The concierge had to take a cab to Wales (£600) to buy the milk (£50). Then the milk had to be heated for the bath, and the concierge also had to supply 50 bottles of Evian water to wash the milk off after the bath.

• A bride-to-be spilled coffee on her satin wedding dress, and the concierge spent hours washing the stain out and then drying the dress with a hand dryer, consoling the bride all the while.

• One guest asked for 20 pounds of ice to be delivered to his room for his penguins.

• A couple checking into a luxury hotel in New York for their wedding asked for a life-size chocolate statue of themselves.

• A crew of commercial filmmakers asked the concierge to find them a trained monkey for their shoot when the monkey they had originally arranged for didn't show up.
